The Alternative and Vintage Makeover Studio

The Style Guide

‘Your map through the wonderful experience’

A word from the creator of Alt Studio

“I started Alt Studio as antidote to the other makeover studios that I’d worked in. I saw the lack of care, creativity and the factory like process of the day. It wasn’t how a photo shoot should be.

Alt Studio took all of that and turned it into a studio for the people that want to be a little different. It reflects the location we are in, Manchester’s Northern Quarter, full of creative humans, doing creative human things, art, media, film, and more cafes/bars/restaurants than you could shake a stick at.

I’ve been asked recently a few times “aren’t you scared AI will take over your field” well to answer that, NO I’M NOT. as no matter how good it becomes, it can’t recreate the experience of doing a photo shoot! the sounds, the laughs, the feel of being in a studio, creating art together!”

See you in the studio! I’ll be the one behind the camera

I was so nervous and incredibly self conscious before stepping into the studio. There was no need. The whole experience was liberating. I felt sexy and confident by the end. Plus, my husband loved the photos which I gave to him as a christmas present.
Thank you!

Booked a photoshoot to mark a big birthday and had no idea what to expect. I needn't have worried as i had the best day! Simon and Paige made me feel so welcome and put me at ease straight away. Had great fun trying different outfits and having my hair and make-up all done for me. If you're thinking about doing it, I'd say go for it...you won't be disappointed
